The presentation of the Distinguished Alumni went very well. The recipients, Jim Campbell and Dave Bowersox, were present and the fans in the stands applauded and appreciated the efforts of both men.

Banquet:

Eric Rowe will develop a program and list the persons donating items for the auction on the back. Ashley Carnahan will be present to take pictures of the "High School Sweethearts" as they enter the cafeteria. Couples are to be directed to the left for their picture. Charlie Benner will MC the sweetheart couples sharing their stories to the group. Patti Morris will donate cakes. A sign will be placed outside in the back parking lot directing attendees to the cafeteria. Mr. Parise will ensure the building is open, set the tables, project banquet arrow on the wall, and be present to give tours at the end of the evening. Kim Soper and Patti Morris will set-up and direct the Chinese Auction. Each member present at the banquet will assist in bussing tables upon completion of the meal. Food will be served via the cafeteria lines.

The idea of directing Legacy Fund monies to the purchase of an electric sign to be placed in front of the high school was discussed but no decision was reached due to the zoning issues of the boro. The possibility of redirecting funds to something different will be discussed at future meetings.

New business:

Eric Rowe presented the results of a discussion at the Street Fair with alumnus Mike Deckard. Mike suggested the association look into a website with the capability of conducting e-commerce, enabling easier membership and sale of alumni merchandise. Mike also stated he would be interested in funding the start-up costs. Eric stated he will pursue this idea with alumnus Shawn Felty, who owns Sire Advertising. He will report at the next meeting.

Next meeting: Thursday, November 16, at 4:00 PM in the high school main office conference room.

Respectfully submitted,

Eric Rowe
